

LIONS “SUPER” ON SUNDAY

The Peachtree Ridge Ice Lions celebrated Super Bowl Sunday with a 7-1 dismantling of Chattahoochee at the Marietta Ice Center. Led by Mitch Nysten's hat trick and Stephen Musso's 4 points the Lions steadily pulled away from their opponents to move to ½ game out of first place in the GSHL AA division. Musso started the scoring with a blast off of a pass from Nick Cittadino. Nysten notched his first with assists from Chris Little and Shawn Rothlis. Only 1 goal was scored in the second period but it was an important one as freshmen Chris Poncsak scored his first high school goal on an assist from Musso. Nysten then scored the next 2, the first on a nice cross ice pass from Daniel Huntington, the second short handed. Musso added his second of the game on an assist from Christian Huntington and sophomore Tyler Fortier closed the scoring with assists from Musso and freshmen Chris Chapin. Raymond Harrington had another strong outing in the nets and the Lions were able to get plenty of ice time for everyone as they raised their record to 9-2 in league play.

From the Lions Den: Next up for the Lions is a game against Collins Hill Sunday morning at 10:00am in Duluth. With the return of Jake Cittadino, Josh Berkman is the only player left on the injured list. Scary moment in the 3rd period when Stephen Musso blocked a slap shot and it hit him square in the foot. After the game, the outline of the puck was clearly visible on his foot.
