

Ice Lions sweep Alpharetta

The PRHS Ice Lions finished a season sweep of the Alpharetta Raiders with a 3-1 victory in Duluth on Wednesday night. In a game where the offense failed to find a rhythm the stellar play of goaltender Wesley Edenfield was all that the Lions needed as they held the Raiders to just 1 goal. After a scoreless first period, Mitch Nylén crashed the net and knocked home a rebound to give PRHS a 1-0 lead halfway through the second. Chris Katz from Alpharetta scored with 5 seconds left in the period to tie the game heading into the 3rd. Edenfield and Alpharetta goalie Chad Hardy then took over trading great save after great save until Christian Huntington hit Zach Tomlinson on a great break out pass out and Tomlinson scored on the breakaway with 1:35 left in the game to give the Lions a hard fought victory. An empty net goal by Stephen Musso accounted for the final tally. On a night where it was needed, defensemen Nick Cittadino, Chad Cole, Tyler Fortier, Christian Huntington and Hunter Kemp were at their best in making sure Wesley had all the support he would need.

From the Ice Den: Josh Berkman and Jake Cittadino remain out with injuries. The Lions raised their GSHL record to 8-2 with 4 games remaining. Next up for the Lions is Collins Hill on Super Bowl Sunday, February 1, at 10:00am at the IceForum. The boys featured a “mixed” look as they wore their home white jerseys with their away blue socks as Alpharetta did not have their white jerseys with them.
